Definition of Out of Position

The first group to start will be considered “out of position”, if at any time during the round, the group’s accumulative time exceeds the time allowed for the number of holes played. Any following group will be considered “out of position” if

- a) it is taking more than the time allowed and
- b) it reaches the tee of a par 3 hole and the preceding group has cleared the next tee, it fails to clear the tee of a par 4 before the preceding group clears the putting green, or it fails to arrive at the teeing ground of a par 5 before the preceding group reaches the putting green. Both (a) and (b) must apply for a group to be “out of position”. Procedure when group is “Out of Position”

- a. If a group is “out of position”, the Rules official will call for the Chief Referee and a decision will be taken as to whether the group will be timed. In reaching such a decision, the Chief Referee will take into account of any recent mitigating circumstances, e.g. a lengthy ruling or lost ball, unplayable ball, wrong ball etc. and how far the group is out of position.

If the decision is taken to time the players, each player in the group will be subject to individual timing by the Chief Referee and Rules official will advise each player that they are “out of position” and they are being times. The players will be asked if they are familiar with the slow play procedure and penalties.

Timing will start when a player has reached his ball, he has had a few seconds to select his club and he is able to play without interference. On the putting green, he is allowed a few seconds to repair ball marks and clear loose impediments on the line of his putt.

- c. Timing ceases when a group is either back in position in relation to the preceding group or within the allocated time for the holes played. If whilst being timed, a player exceeds the time allowed on a shot he will be deemed to have “a bad time”.

Penalty for Breach of Condition

- i) One bad time - Warning by Rules Official and told that if he has a further bad time he will be penalized.
- ii) Two bad times - Penalty of one stroke
- iii) For subsequent offence – Disqualification
